Annex A: Description of the Iwi parties and summary of the role and functions of the Crown partiesTe Rūnanga o Ngāi Takoto

1. Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Takoto ("Te Rūnanga") is the post-settlement governance entity for Ngāi Takoto. Te Rūnanga is responsible for administering the historical settlement on behalf of the present and future members of Ngāi Takoto and, through its subsidiaries, the commercial and social development of Ngāi Takoto. Prior to the establishment of Te Rūnanga, Ngāi Takoto had been represented by the Ngai Takoto A Iwi Research Unit Trust.

2. The Deed of Settlement between Ngāi Takoto and the Crown was signed on 27 October 2012 and it is expected that the Settlement Legislation will be introduced in early 2014. The Trust Deed and the Deed of Settlement are available from Te Rūnanga offices or online at www.ngaitakotoiwi.co.nz.

Department of Internal Affairs, Te Tari Taiwhenua

3. The Department of Internal Affairs ("the Department") serves and connects people, communities and government to build a safe, prosperous and respected nation. The Department is responsible to six Ministers administering one Vote across seven Ministerial portfolios.

4. The Department's portfolios are Internal Affairs (including the Government Chief Information Office, the National Library and Archives New Zealand), Ministerial Services, Ethnic Affairs, Civil Defence, Racing, Local Government and the Community and Voluntary sector (including the Office for the Community and Voluntary Sector).

5. The Minister of Internal Affairs oversees the Government's ownership interests in the Department which encompass its strategy, capability, integrity and financial performance.

6. The Department:

- a. provides direct services to people, communities and government;
- b. provides policy advice to government;
- c. regulates peoples activity, encourages compliance and enforces the law; and
- d. monitors performance.

APPENDIX 5: LETTER OF COMMITMENT

8. The National Library of New Zealand is set up under the National Library of New Zealand (Te Puna Mātauranga o Aotearoa) Act 2003 ("Act"). Under section 7 of the Act, the purpose of the National Library is to enrich the cultural and economic life of New Zealand and its interchanges with other nations by, as appropriate:

- a. collecting, preserving, and protecting documents, particularly those relating to New Zealand, and making them accessible for all the people of New Zealand, in a manner consistent with their status as documentary heritage and taonga;
- b. supplementing and furthering the work of other libraries in New Zealand; and
- c. working collaboratively with other institutions having similar purposes, including those forming part of the international library community.

9. The Alexander Turnbull Library forms part of the National Library. Under section 12 of the Act, the purposes of the Alexander Turnbull Library are:

- a. to preserve, protect, develop, and make accessible for all the people of New Zealand the collections of that library in perpetuity and in a manner consistent with their status as documentary heritage and taonga;
- b. to develop the research collections and the services of the Alexander Turnbull Library, particularly in the fields of New Zealand and Pacific studies and rare books; and
- c. to develop and maintain a comprehensive collection of documents relating to New Zealand and the people of New Zealand.

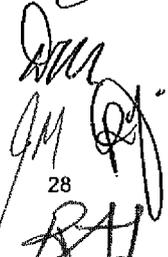

Department of Internal Affairs Archives New Zealand, Te Rua Mahara o te Kāwanatanga) functions

10. On 1 February 2011, Archives New Zealand was integrated into the Department of Internal Affairs.

11. The Public Records Act 2005 sets out the functions of the Chief Archivist and the role of the archives repository, Archives New Zealand.

12. The Chief Archivist has a leadership role in advising on and monitoring the information management practices of public sector agencies. This includes developing standards for information creation and maintenance, and providing advice and training for those implementing these standards. In due course public records of long-term value become public archives under the control of the Chief Archivist. Among the public archives there are records that are considered taonga of Te Hiku o Te Ika. The Chief Archivist is also responsible for ensuring the preservation of public archives, and facilitating public access to and use of public archives.

13. The Chief Archivist has a responsibility to provide leadership and support for archival activities across New Zealand including the safekeeping of private, iwi, hapū and community records. Archives New Zealand endeavours to improve access for Māori and other communities to records of significance to them. Maintaining a presence and working with iwi, hapū and the wider community, ensures the Chief Archivist is able to consult effectively with Māori on recordkeeping and archive issues.

APPENDIX 5: LETTER OF COMMITMENT

14. Records of long-term value are transferred to the public archive on the authority of the Chief Archivist who has the statutory responsibility to determine whether to keep or dispose of public records.
15. The majority of the public archives are held in Archives New Zealand's repositories in Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch and Dunedin. Some public Archives are held by approved repositories.
16. Access to the public archive is promoted through a variety of technological formats and by way of customer assistance and support in each of Archives New Zealand's four reading rooms across the country, a remote enquiries service, and an increasing online digital presence.

The Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa (Te Papa)

17. The Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa, also known as Te Papa, was established by statute in 1992, replacing the former National Museum and National Art Gallery. Its purpose, as stated in the Act, is to "provide a forum in which the nation may present, explore, and preserve both the heritage of its cultures and knowledge of the natural environment in order to better understand the past, enrich the present and meet the challenges of the future".
18. The Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa Act defines Te Papa's functions as to:
 - a. collect works of art and items relating to history and the natural environment;
 - b. be an accessible national depository for collections of art and items relating to history and the natural environment;
 - c. develop, conserve and house securely the collections of art and items relating to history and the natural environment;
 - d. exhibit, or make available for exhibition by other public art galleries, museums, and allied organisations, such material from its collections as the Board determines;
 - e. conduct research into matters relating to the collections or associated areas of interest and to assist others in such research;
 - f. provide an education service in connection with its collections;
 - g. disseminate information relating to its collections, and to any other matters relating to the Museum and its functions;
 - h. co-operate with and assist other New Zealand museums in establishing a national service, and in providing appropriate support to other institutions and organisations holding objects or collections of national importance;
 - i. co-operate with other institutions and organisations having objectives similar to those of Te Papa;
 - j. make best use of the collections in the national interest; and
 - k. design, construct and commission any building or structure required by the Museum.

APPENDIX 5: LETTER OF COMMITMENT

19. In performing its functions Te Papa must:

- a. have regard to the ethnic and cultural diversity of the people of New Zealand, and the contributions they have made and continue to make to New Zealand's cultural life and the fabric of New Zealand society;
- b. endeavour to ensure both that the Museum expresses and recognises the mana and significance of Māori, European and other major traditions and cultural heritages and that the Museum provides the means for every such culture to contribute effectively to the Museum as a statement of New Zealand's identity; and
- c. endeavour to ensure that the Museum is a source of pride for all New Zealanders.

Core Values

20. Te Papa is guided by the following core values:

- a. Kaitiakitanga as guardian of the nation's collections;
- b. Manaakitanga in caring for our communities;
- c. Mātauranga through seeking and sharing knowledge and learning;
- d. Whanaungatanga in caring for each other; and
- e. Hiranga in aspiring to excellence.

Strategic Direction

21. Te Papa's vision for the future is e huri ngākau ana - changing hearts, e huri whakaaro ana - changing minds, and e huri oranga ana - changing lives. The Museum's role is to act as a forum for change in Aotearoa New Zealand. It is to help people form ideas about the world, through experiencing and sharing different perspectives, so that they can take action from an informed position.

22. At the heart of Te Papa's vision and long-term strategy are the philosophies of, Mana Taonga, Museology and Learning.

Mana Taonga

23. Mana Taonga encapsulates the relationship between people, taonga and narratives. It enables Te Papa to design and disseminate models of collaboration and co-creation that shares authority and control with iwi, whilst recognizing, embracing and representing the changing demographics of Aotearoa New Zealand.

Museology

24. Te Papa works in collaboration with communities and individuals to deliver experiences that are current, fast moving, impactful, meaningful and relevant nationally and globally.

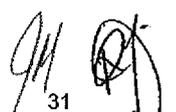

Learning

25. Te Papa encourages experimentation that allows us to try new ideas and generate new knowledge, upon which we reflect and adapt our beliefs and actions, change behaviours and enhance our performance.

APPENDIX 5: LETTER OF COMMITMENT

26. The aim is that all experiences in Te Papa engage and inspire people, and help them to learn how they can have a positive impact on Aotearoa New Zealand and the world.
27. In developing the vision and long-term strategy, Te Papa recognises that it is operating in a dynamic and diverse country. All Te Papa's activities are informed by an awareness of the value and significance of Tangata Whenua and all other peoples who have made Aotearoa New Zealand home.
28. The strategic priorities outlined below present the greatest opportunity for effecting change. They also identify how Te Papa itself will develop and change in order to achieve its vision.
